Local Teenager Killed In Three Car Mishap Saturday

A three-car accident at 7:10 Saturday night claimed the life of 20-year-old Jeff McDaniel. The accident occurred in the curves, just past Buck Mill Creek on Highway 87 South (Samson Highway).

Driver Injured In Early Morning Collision

Leroy Flowers, of Elba, was injured early Tuesday morning when his car collided with the rear of a tractor-trailer that was reportedly backing across the Kinston Highway, just South of the railroad tracks at Dorsey Trailers.

The truck was delivering a load of axles to Dorsey, and told investigating officers he was backing across the highway when he saw the car coming. He then tried to drive forward and get out of the highway, but didn't get moved soon enough.

Flowers was taken to the Elba hospital by the Elba Rescue Squad and later transferred to Dothan for treatment of back pains. The accident happened shortly after 5 a.m. Tuesday. Flowers was alone and the only person injured.

Christmas Parade Set For 1 PM Saturday

The Jaycee Christmas Parade is scheduled for this Saturday, (December 8), at 1 p.m. It is being sponsored in conjunction with the City of Elba.

Four high-school bands will spark the annual parade this year. The Elba High Band is a regular, and will be joined this year by bands from Zion Chapel, New Brockton and Kinston. A number of clubs and organizations have also entered units in the parade.

Santa Claus, the star of any Christmas parade, will again ride the fire truck. He will be assisted in passing out candy to the youngsters by members of the Elba volunteer fire department.

Rayborn Notes 4-Way Stop Elba Police Chief Max Rayborn noted this week that the intersection of Factory Street and Simmons Street (city hall corner) is now a four-way stop, with all four sides legally required to come to a full stop before entering the intersection. Rayborn said violators will be given tickets.

Band Concert Set For Next Thursday The combined Elba High Tiger bands will present a Christmas Concert on the square, on Thursday, December 13, beginning at 5:30.

A number of Elba merchants will remain open at this time for the benefit of Christmas shoppers.

Resource Center Opened At ESJC A Resource Center with information for displaced homemakers is being established at Enterprise State Junior College according to B. A. Forrester, president.

We are collecting print and audio-visual materials on a wide range of problems facing displaced homemakers and will make it available to anyone in Alabama," Forrester said.

Linda Wilson, director of ESJC's Career Development Center, is project director and she and members of her staff are gathering information on resource directories, governmental agencies, educational institutions, civic groups, community agencies, churches-any group, individual, or program that might be helpful to displaced homemakers.

Mrs. Wilson requests anyone with information to contact her office at the junior college.

A displaced homemaker training program has been set up at ESJC for persons who have lost the support of their spouse by death, divorce, or separation. They are being trained to earn their way in the future. "Our project counselor, Mrs. Verna Chesler, is available for counseling with women in the Wiregrass who need assistance," Mrs. Wilson said.

Educational opportunities are still available for those who qualify. Displaced homemakers can earn the High School Equivalency Certificate and go into secretarial training or if they have a high school diploma they can enroll in the secretarial science program and prepare themselves for employment. Financial assistance and child care is available in the ESJC program.

Agencies throughout Alabama are urged to contact Mrs. Wilson and provide whatever information they may have for the Resource directory," Mrs. Wilson said.

There are between three and seven million displaced homemakers in the United States and most of them are forced into the job market with no skills, no self-confidence, and are hampered by emotional and financial problems. The Resource Center will tell these people where to obtain help and how to apply.

Enterprise Plans Tour Of Homes The Enterprise Garden Club Federation will host the Holiday Tour of Homes, to be held Thursday, December 6, from 2 to 8 p.m.

Homes to be toured are those of Dr. and Mrs. J.D. Talmadge, 102 Cherry Hill Road; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Hooks, 209 West Sand Creek Road; Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Gardner, 208 Hickory Bend Road.

Tickets may be purchased from members of the Azalea, Daffodil or Flower Lovers Club, or may be bought at any of the homes on the tour at that time. Admission is $2.00.

Goodman Jr. High School students are very excited about the upcoming Elba Christmas parade, scheduled for Saturday, December 8.

Parents and faculty have been working on their float since November 17, with materials gathered from students and merchants or borrowed from neighbors.

One student's name was drawn from each grade to ride on the float, which features "The Night Before Christmas" theme.

Fire Damages Watson Home Sunday Morning

A house fire early Sunday morning heavily damaged the Emmett Watson home on Caroline Street. Firemen were called to the fire at 2 a.m. and again some time later after the smoldering embers flared up again. Family members started shortly after daylight Sunday cleaning up the fire damage and repairing the home.

POOR ORIGINAL

BRAINSTORMS

The Christmas season is again upon us and with it the frantic buying that goes along with the season. We have learned to bite our tongues when people start talking of going to the big city shopping. They have all heard our arguments for shopping at home, and choose to talk about their neighbors and not them personally. The worst offenders in our eyes are some of those who either help us preach the message of "Shop at Home," those who directly benefit from tax dollars spent at home and even some merchants. Now, if the shoe fits and your feelings are hurt, just call me a meddling old fool. I will wear the label with pride in this case.

If 5000 people spend an extra $10 each in Elba each month, it would place $1000 in the Elba tax pile for use to benefit Elba folks. If we continue to spend that amount of money elsewhere, it will still be collected, but will be for other towns' streets, schools, library, etc. That doesn't include the gasoline it takes to get to the other towns.

Bill Driggers sure was a welcome sight in the wee hours of the morning recently. During this cold weather, it is awful hard mentally for me to get out in the cold during the night to go to work, fires, etc. After getting chilled to the bone one recent early morning, we stopped off at the Ranch House Restaurant and thawed out with a cup of fresh, hot coffee. We were surprised to find anyone even awake at that hour, and doubly surprised to see Bill with coffee made and cooking breakfast for several folks. He explained that during hunting season, there is a lot of business available; therefore, he and JoAnn make arrangements to serve those hungry mouths.

I, F. "Bow" Dunaway told the City Council Tuesday night they need not worry about his suspension as street superintendent because he quit. Now we had heard he was working at another job and this is probably better for all concerned. First, Bow has a reputation for being downright good at selling fork lifts. . . we have been told this a number of times by folks who are in the know. Secondly, Bow was not on the best of terms with the City Council even before the incident that prompted the suspension. That was a matter that would have been tense and trying on all concerned, and would have reflected directly on the operation of the street department and the City Council. Also, the fact that the superintendent was censured by the Council could, as Bow noted, cause department employees to have a false idea that they could run to the councilman any time they were upset with Dunaway and "get Bow in trouble." We have known Bow for many years, have seen him walk the tightrope between politicians, and assure me that this was not of those times when it was better to just get off, rather than balancing on the wire without a safety net.

We received a phone call recently from New York, and some guy was offering to make us rich in the crude oil business. All we had to do was put up several thousand dollars, and in a little while the higher price of the oil would make us very rich. Well, we didn't have the dollars to invest, but don't think we would be interested in a telephone sales pitch anyway. We can't help but wonder about someone who picks our name from the telephone book and offers us "a sure profit." Most folks would just save the phone call and keep the "sure profit" for themselves or maybe their close friends.

Jake Morrow gave us some tomatoes last week that are some of the largest and finest we have had all year. He grew them outside, and with the frost of recent days, the crop has been harvested for the last time, but it was a fine crop. He reportedly planted them late in June or maybe early July, in case anyone wants to compete with him next year.

The crisis with the fifty hostages in Iran ain't getting any better, but Teddy Kennedy showed his colors during the weekend. The reaction was so bad that he has spent the balance of the week trying to explain that what he said was not really what he intended. Jimmy Carter has left a lot to be desired as President, but we disagree with the experts and predict that Carter will out-pull Kennedy for the Democratic nomination.

The Elba City Council decided a couple of weeks ago to drop the idea of a garbage dump or "landfill" off the Brundidge Highway, and we are happy. Not that we opposed that location over any other, but we oppose the idea of Elba being in the landfill business. With Coffee County offering the service at a nominal charge, Elba will be money and headaches ahead to pay the 50 cents per family monthly charge and haul ALL our garbage to the central location.

It is hard for an old country boy like myself to understand the thinking of crowds that trample fellow citizens to death as happened this week in Cincinnati when eleven were killed and many others hurt in a mad rush to be the first into a rock concert.

The craze for buying and selling of "how to" books continues to grow in every part of our society. Recently an advertisement for a book on how to be successful in newspaper publishing caught our eye. After reading part of the ad, we happened to see the name of the author, and needless to say, it promptly ended any chance we would buy the book. We happened to know the track record of the author, and it ain't impressive. This makes us suspect of all such books unless the author is really an acknowledged expert in his field.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir,
I read with disappointment your Sports Editor's view of the Elba-Eula football game. Obviously, Ricky Mularz was not at the same Elba-Eula football game that I attended.

This article makes me much more appreciative of our local paper, The Elba Clipper. I have never seen such an article appear in this newspaper—whether we won or lost a game. Anyone who was present at this football game, Elba fans or Eula fans—know how the players conducted themselves at this game.

As for the spectators, I cannot answer for them but I can say that your Mr. Ricky Mularz did not mention the fact that so many of the Eula fans offered assistance to our Elba coach when one of his vehicles broke down and even that our Principal Mr. Quinney offered one of our buses to transport the Elba students home. These people were spectators, too.

My husband knows your Coach Mack Wood personally and he is of the opinion that Mr. Wood is too fine a person to make such a statement as Mr. Mularz quoted in his article.

Good Sportsmanship and being a good loser also should apply to Sports Editors. I have enclosed a copy of an article which appeared in The Montgomery Advertiser on Wednesday, November 28, 1979, which I believe truly reflects the kind of football team Elba has. Eula lost their game to Jackson last Friday night (and also lost one of our fine young citizens who previously played for Elba this same night) but not one word was printed in our local paper about the opposing team or its sportsmanship. I think this in itself shows the "class" of Elba and its citizens.

It's not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game and how you conduct yourself after the game that counts.

Mr. Mularz was correct in his last statement—I give him credit for this. "Elba's offense . . . and we got whipped!"

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

Mrs. Eloise Simmons McKenzie

MRS. ELOISE SIMMONS MCKENZIE

Our Very Special Person this week is a sweet and kind lady by the name of Mrs. Eloise Simmons McKenzie who came to stay at the Elba Nursing Home from our neighboring town of New Brockton, Alabama.

Mrs. McKenzie is a very small-boned and petite lady with a cheery smile for every one she sees. She wears her hair neatly in a bun and always looks "fresh as a daisy."

She was born 84 years ago, the 1st day of March, 1895, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bie Simmons. She was born around the New Brockton area in Coffee County. Her father was a farmer.

She has five sisters and two brothers. Three of her sisters are deceased. They are: Mrs. Violet Driggers, Mrs. Lillie McCall, and Mrs. Flora McCall. Her brothers and two remaining sisters are Mr. Eskar Simmons, who makes his home in Samson; Mr. Elzie Simmons, a resident of Winter Garden, FL; and Mrs. Willie Creech of Coffee Springs; Mrs. Mildred Creech, who lives in Samson; and Mrs. Mae Reddick, of Nicville, FL. (The two Mesdames Creech married brothers).

Sixty-five years ago on the 11th day of November, Mrs. McKenzie wed Mr. Joe McKenzie. They were married in Westville, Florida. All three of his brothers are deceased - Mr. Joe, Lloyd and Matt. He had one sister, Mrs. Minnie Ola Chaney, and she, too, has passed away.

Upon the date of his wedding, Mrs. McKenzie's 65th wedding anniversary - an occasion, we might say, which was VERY few couples live to celebrate, so, we think it is pretty extraordinary, and even when she was in her 80's, could pick over 300 pounds a day!

Imagine what she could pick in her prime! As for "loving" to pick cotton, let it suffice to say, we, too, have had our "days" in the cotton field, and LAZY us sure didn't like it! We've got to differ with you on that, Miss Eloise. Ha!

Miss Eloise's favorite food is "something sweet." Seems like she had a "sweet tooth," and up until the time she went into the hospital, she ALWAYS kept a freshly-baked cake and ice cream handy in her home. To see her, one would never think she had a "sweet tooth," or ate much of anything, she is such a dainty and petite person.

Her room-mates are Maxine Barnes, Mrs. Mae Wilson, and Mrs. Ethel Moore.

Although Mrs. McKenzie is from New Brockton, she was admitted to the nursing home on August 3, 1979, from the Geneva Hospital where she had been for about one month in critical condition. She had a feeding tube, but is now so much improved and better that she no longer needs this. In fact, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ada McKenzie, stated that since Miss Eloise was so much better and recognized family members, she felt that the children would be planning something special for Christmas, when everyone would get together for the holidays.

So, friends, relatives and former neighbors of Miss Eloise, she is much improved and would welcome and appreciate your visits, so, stop by soon and visit with her and all the other residents of the nursing home soon - won't you?

New Arrivals

EMILY KATHERINE SMITH
Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smith of Douglasville, Georgia, announce the birth of a daughter, Emily Katherine, born November 28, 1979.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Smith of Elba. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gibson, of Greenville, Alabama.

LARRY MATTHEW FARRIS
Phil and Susie Farris would like to announce that on November 7, 1979, they became the proud parents of a seven-pound, 20-inch son, named Larry Matthew Farris.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Roland Powell and Mr. and Mrs. Otha Farris.

KATHERINE LESHEA FREE
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph K. Free announce the birth of a baby girl, Katherine Leshea, born November 30, 1979. She weighed 7 lb. 12 oz.

The new arrival was born in an Enterprise hospital, and mother and baby are doing fine.

Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Irvin P. Free, Elba, and Mr. and Mrs. John Ben Johnson, Brantley.

We can ONLY IMAGINE how hard "Miss" Eloise had to work to keep enough food cooked and put on the table, and clothes sewn and mended and washed - us modern-day housewives with all our electric gadgets and hot-and-cold running water! Not to mention how hard Mr. McKenzie had to work to grow and/or buy all that food those little mouths consumed, and paying for those clothes and shoes. Yes, we're sure times were hard for them, as it was for most of the other early settlers of Coffee County. But, you know, we have an idea that Mr. Joe and Miss Eloise wouldn't change a bit of it, if some magic they were able to recall all those long, hard, but happy and fulfilling years!

Miss Eloise enjoyed sewing for the children and piecing quilts in her younger days. In the summertime she loved to work in the yards, and this can be evidenced by the many beautiful azaleas and camellias in view as one passes her home, which is located in the Goodman Community.

Max said that another love of his mother's was PICKING COTTON! He said she really enjoyed it, and even when she was in her 80's, could pick over 300 pounds a day!

Imagine what she could pick in her prime! As for "loving" to pick cotton, let it suffice to say, we, too, have had our "days" in the cotton field, and LAZY us sure didn't like it! We've got to differ with you on that, Miss Eloise. Ha!

Elba Study Club Meets

The Elba Study Club met Wednesday, November 7, 1979, in the home of Mrs. Gerald Tucker. Mrs. P. H. Sellers served as co-hostess.

A delicious salad plate was served to 17 members. After the social hour, Miss Jeanette Garrett called the meeting to order and asked committees for their reports.

Mrs. Melvin Senn was welcomed as a new member of the club.

Mrs. Duke Tatum was asked to replace Mrs. Herbert Bailey as Program Chairman for 1980-81. Mrs. Bailey recently resigned.

After the business session, the meeting adjourned.

Those attending were: Mesdames M. O. Bruckner, Edw. Bryan, J.R. Clark, L.J. Kendrick, J.D. Lowery, F.H. Murphree, P.H. Sellers, H.L. Stephenson, Duke Tatum, Sr., W.H. Taylor, Gerald Tucker, Melvin Senn, and Miss Jeanette Garrett.

which held a large white canopy. Large containers of split leaf philodendron, ferns and sheffera adorned the room.

The bride's table was covered with a white cloth and a large crystal punch bowl filled with a layer of yellow linen. The cloth was beautifully decorated with large bows of yellow satin. Focal point of the table was the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waylon Vaughan Adkinson of Elba. Maternal grandparents are Mrs. Rena Lashley Medley of Enterprise, Alabama, and the late Walter Robert Lashley of Elba. Paternal grandparents are Mrs. Eleanor Vaughan Adkinson and the late D.B. Adkinson of Elba.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Lannan Daniels of Elba. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brantley Lowery of Elba. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Stillman Daniels, also of Elba.

The improvised altar was set in the spacious living room in front of French doors hung with creamy white antique satin drapes trimmed with heavy gold fringe. An arch of brass candleabra, holding fifty flickering tapers of yellow large brass bowls of lovely yellow rose buds accented with greenery and baby's breath.

The mirrored mantel in the living room held a large candleabra which was intertwined with greenery, delicate white flowers and white satin wedding doves. It also held five candeliers of amber in which burned white candles.

The registry table, presided over by Mrs. Richard Derrell Adkinson, sister-in-law of the bride, was covered with gold overlaid with a white lace cloth. On the table was a crystal and silver bud vase holding a single yellow rosebud.

Miss Kathy Tucker provided soft organ music for the joyous occasion. The selections were "I'll be there" and the traditional "Wedding March" and other appropriate selections during the reception which followed the wedding ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a street-length dress of candlelight Quiana knit. The full circular skirt was topped by a bloused bodice with V-neck with soft shirring and cape-like sleeves. The gown was a single strand of pearls as her only jewelry. Her bridal bouquet was of tiny yellow rosebuds, stephanotis and baby's breath.

The ceremony a reception was held in the large den of the Adkinson home. The mantel was covered with a huge arrangement of yellow tinted carnations and greenery. On each end was a hurricane candle holder of amber color.

Donna McCormick Becomes

Bride Of John Dowling

Miss Donna Ellen McCormick and John Carroll Dowling were united in marriage on Friday, November 30, 1979, at four o'clock in the afternoon. The wedding was held at the home of the bride's parents in New Brockton. The Rev. Perry W. Vickers performed the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs R. McCormick, Sr., of New Brockton, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Warren Dowling, Jr., of Enterprise.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight gown of imported sheer organza fabric and silk. She carried a bouquet of green Quina styled with a wrapped bodice and spaghetti straps. They carried arm bouquets of long-stemmed ivory roses and ivory poinsettias.

Mrs. Richard Warren Dowling, Sr., served his son as best man.

Following the ceremony, the candles were lit by Master Warren Dowling, nephew of the groom. The bride was assisted with her train by Miss Jennifer McCormick, niece of the bride.

The major stop was at the old Elba High School. The bride and groom were met by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Warren Dowling, Sr. and Mrs. Mary Warren and Miss Anita King a few days ago, when they casually took to the open road. I understand there are not enough adjectives to describe the gorgeous colors of the countryside and mountain peaks they saw.

Around The Town

By Mrs. Nellie B. Martin

Mrs. Dot Hamm had as her guests, Mr. and Mrs. R.R. Trail of Vineland, New Jersey, and Mr. C.C. Vimmerman of Sacramento, California. These distinguished visitors really enjoyed Dot's southern hospitality. They have been friends of Dot and her late husband, Mose, for many years.

The Enterprise branch of American Association of University Women held their November meeting at Enterprise Jr. College. A social hour preceded the program.

Nancy Ellis, president, presided. Susan Samblin, program chairman, introduced Mr. Fred Donaldson, who spoke on "Time Management." He was very dynamic and entertaining. Some thirty members answered roll call. From Elba were Mrs. May Bryan, Miss Jeanette Garrett and Nellie B. Martin.

The versatile Rene Miller, of the Azalea Garden Club, and two of her ardent Garden Club friends, Mrs. Hoyt Childs and Mrs. Fred Desmar of Samson, attended a symposium on Advanced Flower Designing at the Botanical Gardens in Birmingham.

Sunday at noon, my doorbell rang. Well, who would be here but my former neighbor, Dixie Davis. She had brought me a batch of fruitcake cookies they were good. Thanks, Dixie, for your thoughtfulness. May this holiday season be the best ever for the Davis family.

Mrs. Alice Green of Smith Avenue, had as her visitors Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Green and family of Montgometry. Her oldest son, Albert, who resides in Phenix City, but who is employed by a Gin Company in Columbus, Georgia, has also been a guest of his mother recently. Hobson has had assignments for the company for many years in Tuscaloosa, Jean just relaxed around in a "lazy way" while the Judge combined business and judicial duty.

If you have the privilege to ride the Baptist Church bus, and want to be perfectly comfortable and relaxed, let Cecil Bowdoin be in command. He so capably operated the bus and from Montgomery.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

The air is frosty, the days are getting shorter, and the stars seem brighter. The Christmas season approaches. On every hand, people are heard to greet each other with seasonal good cheer. This happy spirit goes with the temper of Christmas time, and lends an air of congenial good feelings to almost everyone.

Never has there been a time when men more desperately needed to know the good news, and never has there been a time when it was more possible to make it known. Because of the miracles of mass communication, the technology is now available to penetrate the entire world with the Gospel message. For the billions of the world there is a need to know the greetings of Christmas.

Our greetings at Christmas are visual, oral and written. You can already see Christmas trees and decorations appearing, and people are already speaking in the happy tones of the season, and soon you will send and receive written greetings. God's greetings appear in the same modes. At the first Christmas, many things were said: "Angels, a baby, and a star. Also, many things were said: "peace on earth, the good of the Jews," "I will call his name Jesus."

Years later, the Gospel writers would pause to describe the account, each in his own particular fashion. It seems that God tried in every way to let the message be known to a world that is frantic to know the good news of Christmas. For the next few weeks, you will, no doubt, get into the spirit of Christmas. In that spirit you will exchange greetings with many people - some whom you know and some you do not know. Remember that God has spoken in Christ, and you can speak for Christ.

Season's greetings to you and yours.

There will be a Gospel Singing at Mt. Gilead Baptist Church on December 8, 1979, at 7:00 p.m.

Featuring singers will be the Ambassadors, the Davis Brothers and King's Four. Everyone is invited.

Chancellor Is Pastor At Hebron

The people of the Zion Chapel community would like to welcome Kenneth and Judy Bible Institute in Graceland, Florida.

The Chancellor and their two children are new residents. The Chancellors are from Phenix City, where he was pastor of the Kirkland Memorial Baptist Church. Kenneth is the new pastor of Hebron Baptist Church; he is also a student at Baptist Chapel Elementary School, Sheri was recently selected Junior High Beauty.

Any community would be lucky to have fine people such as these. We want to extend a hearty welcome to the Chancellors and let them know we're glad they chose to live here.

First Baptist Choir To Present Cantata

The Chancel Choir of the First Baptist Church of Elba will present, "So Send I You," a Christmas cantata by John W. Peterson, on Sunday, December 9, at 11:00 a.m.

This special service is part of the extra emphasis on foreign missions observed during the month of December. This emphasis culminates in the giving of a special offering to missions known through the Southern Baptist Convention and the Lottie Moon Christmas offering.

The goal for the Elba First Baptist Church is $2,000.

Dr. Auchmuty On Board At Judson

A Birmingham pastor and denominational leader and a South Alabama industrialist have been elected to the Board of Trustees.

Dr. James A. Auchmuty, Jr., pastor of Shady Grove Baptist Church, Birmingham, and George M. Heard, director of industrial relations at Van Dyke, Monroeville, were added to the college governing body of the Alabama Baptist State Convention this month.

Before moving to Birmingham, he pastored churches in Lanett, Five Points, Mobile, Alleville, Abbeville and Elba. He returns to the Judson board after serving during 1965-1977.

IN MEMORIAM

A ROSE AMONG THE THORNS

In memory of Patricia Anne Donaldson Russell who passed away December 6, 1978.

There is no death! The stars go down To rise upon some other shore, And bright in Heaven's jeweled crown, They shine for evermore.

This is how we feel about Anne. She is not dead, she has only begun her last voyage home to be with the Master of our souls.

A mother, daughter, or friend she could be. When anyone needed help, she was always there and, although sometimes it seemed impossible, she would find a way. It was said that she did so much for so many and received so much love for her service that the number of years she lived was far more important than the number of years she lived.

Since the loss of our daughter, our lives have not been the same. A part of us died also, but we try to see this as God's gain because we lost. Now, when we look into the sky and see a shining star, we know we will meet again in Heaven.

A year has passed and we have learned to lean on Jesus more because we know there is never a prayer he doesn't hear or a tear he cannot dry.

Again we would like to thank our friends for all the deeds of kindness shown to us during our time of need.

Continue to pray for us as we place, and try to keep, a rose beside her picture. We know that she would say, "Just one rose will do it."

Her spirit was so humble. Truly she was a rose that lived and died among the thorns.

The Elba High basketball team got off to a fast start last week and could just be the first team to post a winning record at EHS since the 1976-77 squad went 15-13. This year's team isn't real tall, and may not be loaded down with super stars, but they play true "team ball," and can run all night long. Coach Jerry Kirkland built a solid foundation last year, and should have winning teams for many years to come. If Elba keeps working hard and continues to improve, the Tigers could be a team to watch when the Area tourney rolls around in March!

A quick look around the area basketball scene shows that:

New Brockton is a 2A power, but not the unbeatable bunch of giants everybody expected them to be.
Kinston is already tuning up for another run at a state title, and could be the surprise team of the area.
Zion Chapel lost practically its entire team from last year, and will have to rely on a bunch of sophomores to pull 'em thru.
Breadloaf isn't as strong as expected, but if everything holds true to form, Coach Mance Daughtry's team don't start rolling until after the holidays.
Enterprise may not be as dominating a force as last year, but then, nobody is really worried about basketball across the river just yet.
and Troy has a new look, and a new coach, but will be just as strong as ever.

How about those Enterprise Wildcats? Early in the year, Coach Bill Bacon had everybody feeling sorry for him because his team was in a rebuilding year and wouldn't win 5 games. Well, somebody forgot to ask the players! The Wildcats have steamrolled their way into the 4A State finals and have an outstanding shot at the State championship.
I watched the Enterprise-Bay Minette game and was impressed with their wishbone attack and their defense. The offense just keeps on coming and dares you to stop 'em, while the "Alley Cat" defense is as tough as ever. Good luck, Wildcats!

When the Andalusia Babe Ruth team made it all the way to the World Series last summer, a lot of folks heard about a pitcher named Ty Coleman. In a couple of years, even more people may know him. Why? Coleman, a 6-4, 220-pound, flame-thrower, recently signed a pro baseball contract with the Milwaukee Brewers and will report to their Arizona training camp in March. Coleman, a former basketball standout at Straughn, set a Babe Ruth record by striking out 15 batters in a 1-hit win over Medford, Oregon, and was named to the All-Tourney team. A Brewer scout compared Coleman to Vida Blue, and while that may be a slight exaggeration, the big kid could just make it.

I mentioned last week that I got soaked at the Alabama-Auburn game, but I forgot to mention how well Russ Wood played. Russ started the game at linebacker and made 4 unassisted tackles in the first quarter; and even though he was moved back-and-forth from linebacker to defensive end, he still made at least 14 solo stops. Russ is just as big as the rest of his teammates, and should see lots of action in years to come.

Johnny Dyess played the entire game at halfback, but didn't get to do much running because of the sloppy field and Bama's inability to hold onto the ball. Johnny is a good running back, and reminded me of Johnny Mason, an ex-Alabama star. If he gets a chance, Johnny could step in and play for the Tide.

I listened to the Alabama-Auburn game on the radio, and afterwards had to wonder how many thousands of "Plew Bear Plew" bumper stickers were thrown away after Bama won. Bear Bryant mentioned staying home and plopping if his team lost; and you know, some company was really to sell the stickers if Auburn had won. Not this year, however!

The state football playoffs are in the final round, and it looks like the "South" once again has a good shot at claiming all the crowns. Ye old Polish Prognosticator picks 'em like this:

Enterprise 17, Vestavia Hills 7
Colbert County 7, Jackson 3
Randolph County 27, Stevenson 16
Sweet Water 28, Carrollton 7

The win upped Northview's state to 3-1, while the loss dropped Brockton to 3-1.

The Gamecocks seemed awed by the size of the Cougars and never settled down into their usual style of play. Northview totally controlled the boards and got countless rebounds, while Brockton could only manage one shot on each trip down the court.

"We won't make any excuses," said Coach Charles Cole. "We just got a good old-fashioned whipping! They totally dominated the game and we didn't ever get going. Maybe it will make us a better club. We return home Friday night against Straughn and we're looking for a much better game. I think playing at home will help, and our crowd will inspire the boys."

The Kinston Bulldogs finished third in the state last season, but lost 4 of their top 6 players, and were pegged to be a rebuilding year during 1979-80 basketball season. If Coach Pete Kelley is rebuilding, he is running way ahead of schedule!

The Bulldogs dropped their season opener to Straughn 57-48, but have since claimed wins over Red Level 65-41 (in overtime) and Houston Academy 65-59.

Straughn 57
Kinston 48
Straughn took off early in the game and grabbed an early lead, and held on to down the cold-shooting Bulldogs 57-48. Kinston got plenty of good shots throughout the game, but the Bulldogs hit only 8 of 26 from the close in, and simply couldn't make enough buckets to win.

Curtis Lane scored 12 points to lead Kinston, while other scorers included Joseph Edwards 10, Jeff Rhodes 8, Scott Sanson 8, Mike Rhodes 6 and Chris Weeks 4.

The Kinston Bulldogs used a tenacious full-court press in the final stanza to rally and defeat the Houston Academy Raiders 65-59. The Bulldogs and Raiders both pressed early in the game, with Houston Academy taking a 14-13 lead after one quarter. The Raiders held on and led 31-29 at the half, and pulled away to a 48-43 bulge after three quarters. Kinston took a press in the final stanza and behind the shooting of Jeff Rhodes roared back for the win. Kinston hit only 15 of 30 free-throws in the game, but hit on 7 of 7 in the game's closing minutes to insure the win. Joseph Edwards scored 18 points to lead Kinston, while teammate Jeff Rhodes scored 21 rebounds. Other scorers were Curtis Lane 11, Mike Rhodes 10, Scott Sanson 7, Mark Parker 2 and Tim Free 2.

When asked about this year's team, Kinston's Coach Pete Kelley stated, "By the time the latter part of January rolls around we'll be okay, but until then we'll be a rough looking team."

"I can already see some improvement," said Kelley, "and our younger boys are coming around. We start new Brocton, Zion Chapel, Samson and Straughn before the holidays."

Jack Ingram and Red Farmer, the only two drivers to claim the NASCAR late model sportsman championship three years in succession, and the grand national races, winner of 56 of the 100 races, placed the latest list of entrants named to the Winston Snowball Derby here, Dec. 8-9, at Five Flags Speedway.

Farmer, from Hueytown, AL became the first driver to capture the coveted NASCAR title when he turned the trick from 1969-71. Ingram, out of Asheville, N.C., staked his claim to the title during the period 1972-1974. A veteran of three decades of racing, Farmer holds the Five Flags Speedway record of 174.5 seconds, an average of 102.9 miles per hour for the half-mile banked oval.

This year's edition of Pensacola's most popular motor speedway event will carry a record purse of $25,000 and will be run under the name Winston Snowball Derby, the first time that the event has had NASCAR sanction. Allison, coming off his best financial year when he won $300,000 in 1978, will be making his twelfth appearance here. The 42-year old Hueytown, AL native has captured five grand national races this year, including the Winston Snowball Derby here, Dec. 8-9, at Five Flags Speedway.

Area drivers among the 85 expected for qualification runs for the 200-lap event include local favorite Junior Niedeken; La. Alton Jones, Birmingham, Tex.; Mike Anderson, Strasburg, Ohio; Jack Black, Riverdale, Md.; Rusty Wallace, Arnold, Mo.; and Mike Alexander, Franklin, Tenn.

Time trials for all cars, late model sportsman, mini-stocks and bombers, will start at noon, Dec. 8. Upon the conclusion of qualification runs, the mini-stocks and bombers, the 20 fastest cars in each class, will go head to head in a race for purse of $3,200.

The 36 fastest late model sportsman will duel for the Snowball Derby title and $3,000 first place and lap money in the feature event on Sunday, Dec. 9.

Elba's Eddie Coleman with 87 tackles and 17 assists. Troy's Jame Stringer finished second with 44 tackles and 32 assists, while other Elba scorers were Glenn Johnson 17, Frederick Reed 10, Mike Harrison 10, Doug Daniels 9, Alan King 4, Troy Brown 4 and Etheridge Gunnells 2. Greg Bess and David Vaughan scored 15 and 12 points, respectively, to lead Samson.

(B Game: Elba 51-Samson 25)

The Elba B team outscored Samson 31-13 in the second half to post a solid 51-25 win in their season opener. Elba came out cold in the opening stanza and led only 6-8 after one quarter of play, but settled down and claimed the easy win.

The First Thanksgiving Feast

BY: SHERRY WHITE

On November 21, the third grade class of Zion Chapel Elementary School presented a play to the Elementary students and faculty. The play, entitled, "The First Thanksgiving Feast," depicted the participation of each of the forty students in the third grade. Betty McIntosh, the third grade teacher, was in charge of the play.

General different characters were represented in the play, including a pumpkin, a turkey, a chestnut, flour, salt, berries, corn, etc. Some of the students dressed as pilgrims, Indians, and cooks. The word, THANKSGIVING, was spelled out by twelve of the students who told a little about the first Thanksgiving feast with each letter they held. A devotional was given and narrators were included in the play.

Remembering You

BY: ALLISON MADDOX

I've waked sometimes at night
I'm as lonely now as you,
And when the sun begins to show
I wish my dreams would come true.

At night you seem so near
But I can almost understand,
Your feelings for me are a wish
Even when we hold hands.

I am happy to see you in a dream
It makes my heart glow,
I can't forget you even for a while
Even if my life has sorrows.

I will mark that you must be mine
With your quiet eyes,
I will be the gladdest person
And my wishes to arise.

You're everything I've hoped for God, my love is true,
I could change the world
For nobody else but you.

By the time I have found out this
I never thought that love could be
Your heart is not like mine,
I only wish you could see.

The days have passed me by
It's lonely in my heart,
You said you don't love me
And my heart has broken apart.

Although I keep trying to remember
I will never ever hear,
Your sweet and tender voice
With my dreams of yesterday.

Supporters Come To Rebel Aid Again

BY: KATHY SAWYER

On Monday, November 19, Zion Chapel went into full swing preparation for the second round of the State playoffs. Some of the work to be done before the game was to be played here at Zion Chapel included preparing the football field for action. A fence was put up to enclose the "battleground" for the Zion Chapel-Billingsley game, due to regulations of the High School Athletic Association.

We would like to extend many thanks to many people. First of all, our gratitude goes to the three men who were responsible for the actual labor putting up the fence. These men are Ted Rugg, Phil Rugg and Rufus Wilson. Second, we thank Cook Chevrolet for sponsoring us with the miniature footballs that were "passed" to the Rebel spectators at the game. These footballs were fitted with special, special thanks go to all the Rebel fans who have supported and believed in the team all year.

If you tuned in to WELB in Elba Saturday morning, you probably heard the playbacks of the game the night before. Thanks to all those who sponsored this playback.

Even though we lost the game, it is good to know we have such loyal supporters.

Teacher Spotlight

Featured this week in Teacher Spotlight is Coach David Collins, a dedicated Rebel.

After attending Dothan High School and graduating from Troy State University, he found his home at Zion Chapel.

After being assistant coach to Johnny Sanders for two years, he assumed the head coach position after the retirement of Sanders. As head coach in his first year, he led the Rebels to an 8-2 season, and the 1979-80 State playoffs.

During the Spring vacation of last year, Karen Green became the wife of football fanatic, David Collins.

Good luck, and hopeful success in the years to come!

Rebuilding Year For The Rebels

BY: RICKY DORMAN and SHARON ARNOLD

The 1979-80 Rebel basketball season is now underway. Even though the Rebel team will not have any returning starters, Coach Mike Lindsey is looking forward to another exciting year.

Practice began on November 26, with several new prospects on the court.

The Rebels are going into this new season not only with new uniforms, but also with an excellent public address system. This new system is being installed for play-by-play action. The gym floor is also getting a new polish job especially for the 1979-80 season. The Zion Chapel Rebels' first match-up will be against the Elba Tigers in "Rebel Country" on December 7. Be Team game will begin at 6:30, followed by the Varsity game at 7:30.

It was an up-and-down year for the Zion Chapel Rebels. Overall, the year was a lot of fun, a lot of tears, and the greatest learning experience of our lives.

We spent the first five weeks learning humility as we won five straight. We had to learn to win with grace, which is a lot harder than it sounds.

We won our first game, 38-7 over Kinston. We followed with a 44-0 defeat of Clio. The next week we learned to win on the road as we went to Skipperville to play G.W. Long, whom we defeated 28-0. We then came back home to beat Louisville 9-0. Then we wrapped up a State Playoff berth by defeating Arton 14-31.

We got it started back up the next week against Wicksburg with a 14-0 win. The next week we started the Playoffs. We travelled to Nottawissa and defeated the previously undefeated Blue Devils 8-0. The next week we came back home against Billingsley, who trounced us 34-6.

For Kim Leverett, Chris Sanders, Leslie Hussey, Wayne Hussey, Ricky Dorman, Tommy McClain, Darryl Costner, Mitch Maddox, and Cecil Aceman, this was the last game as a Zion Chapel Rebel. We suffered many hardships, but knowing we went the second farthest in the State Playoffs of any Zion Chapel football team will always stick in our minds.

Thanks to everyone for all the help and support; we could not have done it without you!

1979 Year Of The Rebel

Our next learning experience was that of losing as we were defeated by New Brackton. They soundly thrashed us 28-6, and we were really crushed. But we truly learned losing when our good friend, Byron Foley, passed away. All of the victories and losses were minute compared to this crushing blow. We cancelled our game with Houston Academy because of Byron's illness, and only three days after his funeral, we were to play Coffee Springs. Still numbed by the death, we lost to the Bears 12-0.

We got it started back up the next week against Wicksburg with a 14-0 win. The next week we started the Playoffs. We travelled to Nottawissa and defeated the previously undefeated Blue Devils 8-0. The next week we came back home against Billingsley, who trounced us 34-6.

For Kim Leverett, Chris Sanders, Leslie Hussey, Wayne Hussey, Ricky Dorman, Tommy McClain, Darryl Costner, Mitch Maddox, and Cecil Aceman, this was the last game as a Zion Chapel Rebel. We suffered many hardships, but knowing we went the second farthest in the State Playoffs of any Zion Chapel football team will always stick in our minds.

Thanks to everyone for all the help and support; we could not have done it without you!

Band Spotlight

In this weeks spotlight we wish to recognize Dr. Johnny Long, director of bands at Troy State University. Dr. Long, who is a noted musician and adjudicator throughout the country, visited the Elba High School Band to congratulate them in their successful marching season. He also honored the Symphonic Band by directing them in one of their concert numbers.

According to Steve Thompson, the Elba Band director, "It was an extreme pleasure having such a prestigious figure in our band room. Dr. Long has done more for the development of bands in the South East United States than anyone else. I was honored by his visit and his personal interest in our fine program."

Basketball is Here!
Basketball season is finally here. EHS is proud to have three teams representing them this year: a girls' team, a ninth grade team, and a varsity team.

The ninth grade team won their opening game against Geneva last Monday.

FBLA News
On October 15, the FBLA Club of Elba High School held its monthly meeting in Room 21.

The meeting was called to order by the president. Old and new business were discussed.

The assigned chairman and committee served refreshments. There was a continuous discussion on special projects at hand. A project committee was elected and a new chairman and committee were appointed for the following month.
